NUMBER 9

VOL. 94-4909.

MONTPELIER VT. WEDNESDAY MAY 16, 1900.

LIVELY

SILK DEPARTMENT

AT CLEASON'S BUSY CORNER

Where can you find such a variety of Reliable Silks-black and colors-as are now shown at this store?

"Haskell" Taffetas please the people. They are serviceable. We sell them.

L. P. & H. C. Gleason

CREAM SN!

PUREPAINTS

EVERY GALLON

. . OF . .

"L. AND M." PAINT . . IS . .

GUARANTEED

TO BE ALL THAT WE CLAIM FOR IT. TO DO ALL THAT WE CLAIM FOR IT.

> It is No Experiment. We Have Sold It for 20 Years.

BARROWS & PECK, SOLE AGENTS.

SPECIAL SALE

For this week of Rare Bargains in

LINEN OUTSIDE SKIRTS.

Lot No. 1, 49 ets. each. Lot No. 2, trimmed, 98 cents each. These are extra values at low prices. First come, first served.

We have also just received a special line of

MUSLIN UNDERWEAR

D. S. WHEATLEY, 31 State St.

Horsemen Take Notice.

The Horse shown in above cut is

BELMONT ALCANDER.

Read Carefully his Pedigree.

BELMONT ALCANDER is by Alcander, by Alcantara, by George Wilks. Alcantara's dam is Alma Mater. Alcander's dam, Cleopatra, is by Abdallah Prince, dam, Lady Cabot. BELMONT ALCANDER'S dam, Lady Thomas, is by Forrest Belmont, by Belmont, 2d dam by Billy Greene, 3d dam by Scott's Histoga, 4th dam by Handley's Histoga, 5th dam

BELMONT ALCANDER will be three years old July 26, 1900. Height 15-3 weight 1,000 lbs., color a beautiful golden chestnut. Is a square trotter, with spiendid knee and hawk action. This colt is pronounced by the best horsemen to be the finest specimen of his race in the State. He has all the characteristics of his royal sire, and for beauty, style and action

BELMONT ALCANDER will make the season of 1900 to a limited number of mares for a service fee of $25 to insure sound colts at nine days old, with return privileges breed to Archyle. The first question asked by horse buyers is, where can we find ARCHYLE COLTS? Breeders are not slow to catch on, as his in, reasing patronage will testify. Last season his services were sought by breeders from a Archyle will has stable of his owner, Archyle will make the season of 1900 at the

AT DOWNING'S LIVERY, FEED AND SALE STABLE, Barre, Vt.

F. C. LITTLE, Williamstown, Vt., at the phenomenal low service fee of $10.00 TO WARRANT.

PUBLISHED SYSRY WEDSESDAY BY

The Vermont Watchman Company, At Montpelier, Vt.

Business Mere Mention

WANTED AT ONCE.-An experienced man in the carpet and wail paper business, None but men of experience need apply. Combination Cash Store, Barre, Vt.

Does Coffee Agree With You?

If not, drink Grain-O made from pure If not, drink Grain-O made from pure grains. A lady writes: "The first time I made Grain O I did not like it, but after using it for one week nothing would induce me to go back to coffee." It nourishes and feeds the system. The children can drink it freely with great benefit. It is the strengthening substance of pure grains. Get a package today from your grocer, follow the directions in making it, and you will have a delicious and healthful beverage for old and young. 15c. and 25c.

What Shall We Have for Dessert? This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer it today. Try Jell-O, a delicious and healthful dessert. Prepared in two minutes. No boiling! no baking! add boiling water and set to cool. Flavors:—Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. At your grocers, 10 cents.

Are You Going to Europe?

If you are going, or thinking of making a flyou are going, or thinking of making a tour in Europe, read the advertisement of Msj. F. W. Childs, elsewhere in this paper. The route takes the tourist through the most interesting parts of the continent, and includes Paris and the World's Fair. Major Childs is cordially commended to the confidence of any one who may be considering a European tour.

ASHLEY HUBBARD

Ashley Hubbard died at nine o'clock Sunday evening at his home, 24 Cliff street, aged seventy-six years. Within a comparatively brief period Mr. Hubbard has suffered three shocks of paralysis, and from the last he never railied.

Deceased was born in Montpelier in 1824. He was a son of Calvin and Dorcas (Pingree) Hubbard. With the exception of short residences in Barre and East Montpelier his whole life had been passed in Montpelier. He was a carpenter by trade, and built several houses in town. He was also the builder of Kinney's mills on the road to East Montpelier. Among the houses he built in Montpelier was the present residence of H. M. Cutler and the house where he died.

ent residence of H. M. Cutler and the house where he died.

He leaves two sons—Charles J., agent for Charles Francis Adams at Kansas City, Mo., and Arthur A., of Colorado Springs, Col. Both are on their way to Montpelier. He also leaves two brothers and two helf-sisters, Mrs. Edson F. Hutchins of Montpelier, and Mrs. Socrates Bailey of Berlin.

Mr. Hubbard was three times married. His first wife was Miss Julia Carpenter of Barre. After her death in 1894 he married Mrs. Charlotte Whitney of Shelburne Falls, Mass. She died in October, 1896. Two years ago last November he married Mrs. Sarah Chilson, who survives him.

In Mr. Hubbard's death the last descendant of the Hubbard family living in Montpelier passes away. Thirty years ago eleven male members of the three Hubbard families made Montpelier their home.

Funeral services will be held Thursday morning from his late home, Rev. J. Edward Wright officiating. Burial will be in the Green Mount cemetery.

ENTERED INTO REST.

O. L. Harvey died at two o'clock Monday afternoon at his home near Kinney's mills, of the control of the

SUPREME COURT.

was a glad release.

When court reconvened Tuesday morning the arguments in the Franklin county case of W. G. Payne, appellee against Watson B. Gould, appellant, were concluded by Col. A. A. Hall for plaintiff and Williard Farrington for defeudant.

M. J. Hovey against Ephriam Hallet et al, from Caledonia county. Dunnett & Slack tor plaintiff; Bates, May & Simonds defendant.

Rutland county cases were reached this afternoon. Plimington Daggett against the Champlain Manufacturing Company, assumpsit, special and common counts, was the first case heard. Joel C. Baker for plaintiff, G. E. Lawrence and Butler & Majoney for defendant. loney for defendant.

Twenty cases, mostly from Rutland,
Chittenden and Washington counties, remained to be heard when court went in this morning. If all these are argued court will be in session nearly all of next week.

Cabot.

H. L. Morse is in Burlington this week. The family of Rev. O. E. Aiken will ocmpy the parsonage this week. Miss Emms Laird is at home from Swanton where she has been the past winter. Mrs. S. C. Voodry goes to Burlington on Wednesday as delegate of Romo lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, to the State assem-bly in that city.

The creamery made 21,626 pounds of butter in April for which it paid seventeen and one-fourth cents per pound. Gain fifteen per cent, average test, 4 63.

Now that warm weather has arrived you will appreciate good laundry work. Correct laundry work has no acids used about it and all corners and edges should be well pollabed to prevent chafing. For correct and guaranteed work in every particular you should allow Whiteneld steam laundry to do your work, represented by Morse Brothers, who ask you to give them a trial and if you are not more than pleased money will be refunded.

South Barre.

J. E. Ward is quite ill. —— Grace Hill and Johnnie Hollenbeck have the measles. —— Mrs. Walker of Providence, R. I, returned to her home last Friday. —— The polishers of this vicinity are still out on a strike. —— Three of Mrs. Tucker's children are ill with measles.

Matchm an & Journal.

The funeral of the late Ashley Hubbard will be held from his late home Thursday morning at ten o'clock.

Mrs. B. C. Brisbin and Miss Louise, mother and sister of Mrs. F. P. Carleton, returned today to their home in Glens Falls, N. Y.

The funeral of Lee Harvey will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock from his late home, Rev. J. Edward Wright

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Perry, who have been visiting relatives in town for a few days, returned on Saturday to their home in Springfield, Mass.

Dr. H. L. Watson has bought the Dr. J. E. Macomber place, No. 14 Loomis street, and will move there about July 1. It is understood the price was $4,000.

Mrs W. L. Wheeler and child left this morning for Calais, Me., accompanied by Mrs. L. S. Wheeler. They expected to meet Mr. Wheeler at Portland.

Miss Nellie Fifield was the guest of Gov-ernor and Mrs. E. C. Smith at St. Albana over Sunday and left with them this morn-ing for their camp at Victoria Lake. Mrs. Abbie George is suffering from the effects of a paralytic shock which she sustained in her left side Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. R. Merrill, her daugh-

F. J. Campbell, night clerk at the Montpelier House is taking a vacation this week, and will visit at his home in Morrisville. W. J. Shorey of Plainfield, takes his place at the hotel.

The annual meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society connected with Trinity church wifl be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock with Mrs. Amos P. Hartwell on

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Pike drove to this city Saturday from Pike's Station, N. H. Their daughter arrived by train and they were the guests of Misses Mary and Nellie Tromblee, sisters of Mrs. Pike, on Sunday.

The Capital Electric Company is wiring the Burbank residence on Main street for electric lights. Justus L. Batchelder is to occupy the house as soon as other general repairs are completed. Crosby, Currier & Smith, civil engineers,

Crosby, Currier & Smith, civil engineers, of Barre, have opened a branch office in this city in the rooms just vacated by J. M. Boutwell. Frank A. Walker of Barre, architect, also occupies the same rooms.

Although the listers' books are yet incomplete, it is known that they show an increase of personal property over 1899 of about $200,000. The total amount of personal property will exceed $2,000,000. sonal property will exceed $2,000,000.

E. W. Huntley of Duxbury, chairman of the Washington county Republican com-mittee, has called a meeting of the commit-tee at Montpelier next Saturday to fix the time and place for holding the Republican county convention.

John Doherty of Salmon, Falls, N. H., brother of Charles Doherty, who is in jail here convicted of the murder of Fred Mur-phy at Bolton Falls in March, 1898, is in the city to attend the hearing in his brother's case in Supreme court.

case in Supreme court.

Several Italians arrived at Montpelier Junction on the south bound train Friday evening. They were met by others and at once set out on foot for this city, believing, it is said, that they would have to pay an extra fare if they took the branch train.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Noyes leave Wednesday or Thursday for an extended carriage drive through northern Vermont. Mr. Noyes before returning will visit Mrs. H. C. Campbell, his daughter, at Montgomery for a few weeks.

Hon. S. L. Griffith of Danby, accompan-

Hon. S. L. Griffith of Danby, accompanied by Gen. Ripley of Rutland and W. J. Bigelow of Burlington, have been in town on their way to Groton, where they are to enjoy a fishing outing at one of Mr. Griffith's camps.

After the service at the Evangelical church Sunday morning a missionary so-ciety was formed with Mrs. E. G. Maker as president. A meeting of this society is called for Wednesday evening. Rev. Mr. Estey of Warren preached at the Evangel-ical church in the evening.

E. T. Seguin has just received from George N., his brother, who is with the United States forces in the Philippines, several curios in the way of lace, silk hand-kerchiefs, Spanish rifle bullets, a linen cigar case, etc., which are mementoes of his ex-The local hackmen and hotel porters are vieing with one another this spring as to who will come out in the neatest uniform. Ned Marshall, porter at Adams' hotel, now leads the band. He appeared at the station today in a natty uniform resplendent with gold and blue.

Deputy Sheriffs Wedge and Tracy Officer Brown raided the residence of Mrs. Clementine Bianchi on Sibley avenue for contraband liquors Saturday evening and secured about a half barrel each of beer and ale. The officers also visited the rooms of C. H. Alexander but found nothing.

C. H. Alexander but found nothing.

At the meeting of the local Printer's Union, held Saturday evening in Grand Army hall, several new applications for membership were received. It was voted to send for a charter, and ask the district organizer to be at Montpelier, Saturday evening, May 26, to institute the new union.

The funeral of Mattie Agnes Clark was held on Saturday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark, her parents, at 121 Main street, Rev. C. O. Judkins officiating. The members of Ivy lodge, Daughters of Rebekah, attended in a body and presented a beautiful floral offering. Burial was in Green Mount Cemetery.

Mrs. Clementine Bianchi, whose house was raided Saturday evening, was brought into city court Monday on the charges of keeping, selling and maintaining a nuisance. The hearing in the cases were continued for two weeks. W. A. Lord became surety for the ball amounting to $300. The officers, who made the search, said they found forty-one bottles of beer hid away in a bed lounge.

The fiftieth annual meeting of the Vermont Homeopathic Medical Society will be held at the Pavilion next Wednesday and Thursday, May 16 and 17. A "jubilee year" programme has been arranged which promisses to be of unusual interest, especially the "Experience meeting in Materia Medica." The programme for the first day includes a discussion of "Prevention of Consumption" by Dr. H. S. Boardman of Montpelier and others.

MONTPELIER AND VICINITY.

by Dr. H. S. Boardman of Montpelier and others.

The round trip tickets for those who are planning to attend the sessions of the Imperial Council, Order of the Mystic Sbrine, to be held at Washington, D. C., May 22-24, are to be on sale at the local Central Vermont station May 19-21 on which dates the tickets will be good going. Tickets good returning not later than May 29. Tickets via Springfield and New York will be sold for $19.70 and via New London and Norwich steamer line for $14.50.

The exits at the foot of the fire escapes on the Union school building have been kept locked, Some of the parents of the smaller scholars, who would be the first to get to the exit in oase of fire, have profested against this on the ground that the smaller children would not understand unlocking the gate and being caged ap with the older ones pouring down from the floors above, a panic would ensue in which many young lives might be lost. The gates of the sand Mrs. John Emmons Jr., was held on Monday from St.

The funeral of John H. Emmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Emmons Jr., was held on Monday from St. Augustine's church, Rev. Father W. J. O'Sulivan officiating, and the burial was in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased was nineteen years old, and had been a cripple five years with hip disease. Before his illness he was in the employ of F. M. Corry, where he made many friends by his courtsons and gentlemanly ways. He had been confined to his bed eighteen months before his death.

Chief of Police Tuttle has received a letter from Fair Hill, Killarney, County Kerr, Ireland, from Eisie Lawson, wife of John Lawson, who died recently in New Zealand. The letter received by Chief Tuttle contained pictures of Mrs. Lawson and her sixteen years'-old son, with positive proofs that she was the wife of the dead man, and entitled, with their son, to inherit the property. Mr. Tuttle will send the letter and documents to a sister of Mrs. Lawson of Shelburne, and the attorneys in New Zealand will be notified that a widow and son are living.

T. W. Maloney of Rutland, who was in the city Tusedayatten divergence and in the city Tusedayatten divergence.

T. W. Maloney of Rutland, who was in the city Tuesdayattending supreme court, in speaking of the probability of J. H. Senter being nominated by the Democrats of Ver-mont as their candidate for governor said mont as their candidate for governor said there was not the slightest doubt but it would be done as Mr. Senter was the strongest man the party could select for a leader in this year of years, politically. He said Mr. Senter would be the practically unanimous choice of the Democrats in his section of the State. He said the very fact that Mr. Senter could serve repeated terms as mayor of a Republican city like Montpelier was considered as a specially strong point in his favor to say nothing about other and more pungent personal attainments of which Mr. Senter has an abundant possession.

which Mr. Senter has an abundant possession.

Nelson Gale was arrested Friday evening by Officer Demeritt on the charge of a breach of the peace. Mr. Gale is a granite polisher who is out on a strike. He ran up against another man that evening whom he versy slapped his face to the peace of polisher who is out on a strike. He ran up against another man that evening whom he accused of "scabbing" and in the controversy slapped his face. As a result the man entered a complaint with the city attorney against Gale and his arrest followed. Gale evidently did not comprehend that he had violated the law in slapping the man and when Officer Demeritt attempted to serve the papers upon him he resented it. After a brief scufile the officer got his man to jail where another scuffle cusued because of Gale being placed in the wrong cell. He refused to c.me out and enter another. This morning Gale pleaded guilty to the charge against him in city court and was fined $5 and costs which he paid.

The Morse-Loveland executors' war at

The Morse-Loveland executors' war at The Morse-Loveland executors war at 55 St. Paul street still remains about the same. The slege is being maintained by both factions. Allen Morse of Calais, executor of the est te of the late Mrs. William Noyes, was in the city today and said he desired nothing but that which was right. desired nothing but that which was right. He said in explanation of the rights each faction held in the property that when the house was built it was valued at $1200. Of this his sister held a three-fourths interest and her husband one fourth or $300. His share was covered by He said in explanation of the rights each faction held in the property that when the house was built it was valued at $1200. Of this his sister held a three-fourths interest and her husband one-fourth or $300. His share was covered by a mortgage of $150 held by the Montpelier Savings Bank and when the funeral expenses were deducted when the remarkant for the form the remarkant for the re when the funeral expenses were deducted from the remainder it would leave some $100 as his heirs interest in the property Mr. Morse proposes to simply act on the defensive in the matter and will leave the adjustment in the hands of his attorney. He is much gratified by the aid that has been given his party by the neighbors, who have been most kind to his relatives in their illness.

HE GOT 12 PER CENT. INTEREST.

An old gentleman had a house clear and free but no income. He mortgaged his house for $5000 at four per cent. This cost him an outlay of $200. He bought an annuity at age 76, which pays him $816.95 yearly. After paying his interest, he has an income of $616.95 as long as he lives. He says his heirs, administrators or assigns will have to pay the mortgage on the house; he did it once and why not they? He needs the six hundred dollars to live on, and he gets it now.

and he gets it now.

National Life Insurance Company of Vermont, S. S. Ballard, General Agent, Opera House block, Mantpeller, Vt.

East Roxbury. Dr. L. B. Allen of Randolph was in town

Thursday and Saturday attending his father. ——— Guy Fletcher of East Brookfield is helping J. Jones Steele. ———— Charlie F. held on Saturday from the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Clark, her parents, at 121 Main street, Rev. C. O. Judkins officiating. The members of Ivy lodge, Daughters of Rebersh, attended in a body and presented a beautiful floral offering. Burial was in Green Mount Cemetery.

Louis Badord, a derrick man for the Columbing Grautic Company, was taken critically ill Sunday by a clotting of blood upon the brain, and his condition is growing daily more serious. He is unconscious and is so violent that his uncle, Peter Badord, and another man are required to watch him night and day to restrain his violence.

Rev. A. E. Atwater, pastor of Hedding church, Barre, exchanged Sunday evening with Rev. C. O. Judkins. Mr. Atwater preached an old fashioned gospel sermon on the "Preeminence of Christ," which held the attention of his hearers. A pleasing feature of the service was the violin and cornet duet by Mrs. Fannie Parmenter Sheldon and C. L. Leonard.

Bianchard brothers are to begin at once the work of erecting their new building on the lot in the rear of the Lawrence block and expect to have it ready for occupancy in from six to eight weeks. The building will contain, for a blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Clein Eastman has been appointed census senumerator in Brookfield.

Bianchard brothers are to begin at once the work of erecting their new building on the lot in the rear of the Lawrence block and expect to have it ready for occupancy in from six to eight weeks. The building will contain, for a blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Clein Eastman has been appointed census senumerator in Brookfield.

Mrs. Celia Eastman has been appointed census senumerator in Brookfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Celia Eastman is having a will contain, for a blacksmith shop.

Mrs. Clein Eastman has been appointed census senumerator in Brookfield.

Mrs. Celia Eastman has been appointed census senumerator in Brookfield and track of the prevailing distemper. C. W. Webster was in Montpeller and Barre Saturday and Sunday. — Mrs. Celia Eastman has been appointed on the sunday of the s

"I had stomach trouble twenty years and gave up hope of being cured till I began to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has done me so much good I call it the savior of my life," writes W. R. Wilkinson, Albany, Tenn. It digests what you eat.—W. E. Terrill & Co.

Plainfield.

Mrs. L. D. Nute of Marshfield visited in Liveryman H. S. Parks sold a horse last week to go to Groton

L. M. Johnson is making extensive repairs on his premise W. E. Bartlett and wife joined the lodge of Rebekahs last week.

George Pray went to Boston last Satur-lay to remain a short time. A new plank sidewalk is being laid in rout of N. E. Morse's house.

Miss Abbie Clark went to Barre Thursday to care for Mrs. George Parks. Mrs. John Henderson and Mrs. D. W. Moses spont Saturday in Montyelier.

Fred Townsend commenced work on Mon-day for Frank Carr of East Montpelier. The selectmen posted notices last Saturday for a special town meeting May 26. Mrs. James Warburst, who has been suf-fering with tonsilitis, is slowly gaining.

Mrs. S. E. Foss and Mrs. John Parks call-ed on friends in Montpeller Thursday. S. B. Chandler and wife of Cabot visited at W. H. Kinney's Saturday and Sunday. N. E. Shorey of Barre came to town on Saturday to remain over Sunday with his family.

Charles Bulkley and wife were in More-town last week to attend the funeral of a H. S. Parks was in Montpeller Saturday to attend an auction sale of livery stable Henry Dunbar and his daughter Laura of St. Albans were at Fred Perrius the first of the week.

Miss Blanche Spaulding has a large class in music now and new members are con-stantly joining.

Mrs. Laura Beedy, who has been spending several weeks in Berlin, returned home Thursday. Harvey Bennett and Mrs. Juliette Austin of Morrisville visited at C. A. Bartlett's the first of the week.

T. H. Battlett has purchased of Ira Batch-elder a piece of land in the rear of the creamery.

Mrs. William A. Brown and son of Malden, Mass., arrived in town Saturday to spend a short time with relatives.

Rev. Effis K. M. Jones of Bare, will preach in the Universalist house May 20, at 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation to all.

The Duplicate Whist Club met last week with Miss Clark and is to meet this week Thursday at the home of Mrs. D. W. Moses. W. E. Bartlett, while helping build fence for Clinton Cutler received a painful wound in the foot by a piece of steel from the sledge breaking and penetrating the foot.

newly wedded pair.

Arch Batchelder finished Thursday sawing the lumber in his mill yard which aggregated about 1,000,000 feet. The same day he commenced to dress it which will require several weeks before it is marketed.

H. E. Cutler has secured a perfect mate for the fine chestnut horse which he has been keeping for L. D. Taft of Montpeller for a few weeks. Mr. Cutler has always been in the horse business and has owned many matched teams, but few that make a more stylish hitch than the present.

C. P. Hollister died Friday from con-

C. P. Hollister died Friday from con-sumption of the blood. Mr. Hollster was a sumption of the blood. Mr. Hollster was a young man of the best of habits, who was always pleasant and accommodating and possessed of much more than the average ability, which had been developed by a fine education. The death of such a young person is a great loss to the community in which he has lived. A wife and young son anxive him.

Annis Aldrich officiating.

Anns Aldrich officiating.

The lawsuit of L. S. Gilman vs. Henry Coran was tried Friday at Hotel hall before Justice H. P. Martin and a jury composed of W. B. Gove, Will Greely, Harris Eaton, T. H. Bartlett, William Prescott and S. A. Batchelder. Gilman is a refired farmer who sned for a breach of a farm contract which among cultur believes called for which, among other things, called for a cer-tain quantity of hay and wood to be left on the farm by Mr. Coran at the end of his lease. The house and part of the barns were struck by lightning and burned last season. Mr Coran lost heavily and as the fire was no fault of his he considered that he was not hound to nay as the plaint? Allerwas not bound to pay, as the plaintiff alleged in his declaration. This was the view the jury took, they bringing in a verdict for the defendant at about 2 A. M. Saturday.

Wells River.

Mrs. Deming returned from Boston Sat-E. D. Carpenter has returned from Bos-

Miss Mary Randall is recovering from an attack of fever. George Brock was at home from Newport over Sunday. Miss Lottie Munsell visited her sister, Mrs. Worthen, Saturday.

Regular meeting of Col. Preston Corps Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. There was not a large crowd out to the school entertainment Friday evening. W. Carleton and mother have moved in-to the tenement in Dr. John Thomas' house.

Mrs. Foss, Mrs. Davis, Miss Gale and Miss Anthony spent Friday in St. Johns-Mrs. Deming and Mrs. Lee went to Stew-artstown, E. H., on Monday for a short vis-Elwin Wheeler, a former clerk in Mr. Deming's store, but now of Barre, was in town last week.

Mr. Buck has bought for $300 that part of the burned district north of Hale's Tavern owned by Mr. Farwell. The annual convocation of the Grand Chapter of Vermont Order of Eastern Star, will be held at Morrisville June 5.

Mrs. Frank George is at Burlington to spend a few weeks under the doctor's care and hopes to come home much improved in Mrs. Maria Moore has returned from Bellows Falls where she has been for several weeks on account of the sickness of her mother.

Miss Lottie Marshall celebrated her four teenth birthday anniversary May 5, by en-tertaining ten of her classmates at her E. G. Parker was stricken with paralysis Monday forenoon while attending to his work in the barn and at noon had not re-covered consciousness. The twenty-fifth amual convention of the local Christian Endeavor union will be held at McIndoes Friday, May 18. It is expected Rev. Ralph Gillam will give an address in the evening.

Rev. J. E. Farrow gave his illustrated lecture on the "Passion Play" before an appreciative audience in the Congregational church last Wednesday evening. The stereoptican views and illustrated songs were considered very fine.

A LIGHT WEIGHT OVERGOAT

Is an absolute necessity if a man wants to look well. The Spring Overcoats we are showing will give you just the same satisfaction as the overcoats you get from your tailor, and cost you less. All the new styles will be found at our store,

A D. Farwell Co.

All goods sold for cash.

BARROWS & PECK

ARE ACENTS FOR DeLaval Cream Separa

Victor and '76 Plows, Eclipse Corn Planters, Also 40 quart Seamless

Neck Milk Cans. CALL AND SEE THESE COODS.

NOTICE. To Dairymen and Farmers.

The Spring and the Antama mark the periods during which so many Premature Parturitions occur amongst your herds. Abortion, contagious and non-contagious, makes sad ravages with expected increase. Now is the time to act and ave money.

The attention of many intelligent observers, including the eminent members of the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the State Board of Agriculture, has long been directed to the consideration of this evil. Aided by their reported investigations and experiments, we have compounded a remedy which will prove an efficient one in 75 per cent of the cases of threatened abortion of cattle. We have prove an efficient one in 75 per cent of the cases of threatened abortion of cattle. We have named it Bovine Benefactor, and its name is merit d. Any information desired regarding this or other diseases of stock will be cheerfully answered by our skilled Veterinary Physician and Surgeon, Dr. I. W. PARKS, of Ontario Veterinary College. Address

PARKS MEDICAL CO., Montpeller, Vt.

LOW RATES.

3 MINUTES' CONVERSATION

Approximately as follows: 5 Miles or less. 5 Miles to 15 miles.

15 Miles to 25 Miles, 25 Miles to 35 Miles,

35 Miles to 45 Miles, Rates for greater distances in proportion. Apply for schedule of rates to

10 cents

15 cents

20 cents

25 cents

NEW ENGLAND TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY.